RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On February 2, 2016, Katherine R. Hime ("petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA") as a result of receiving a seasonal influenza ("flu") vaccination on January 30, 2014. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On May 3, 2016, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent states that "petitioner is entitled to compensation for the shoulder injury she sustained following her receipt of the flu vaccination on January 30, 2014." Id. at 1. Respondent further agrees that petitioner met the statutory requirements by suffering the condition for more than six months. Id. at 2.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence before me, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
